

WORKSHEET OUTPOST | Grade 1 Math

Extra practice: tens and ones

OW-G1-126 | Five questions

Success criteria
I can show how many tens and ones are in a number.

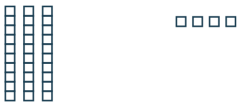

Name: _____ Date: _____

Read each problem or listen as someone reads it. Show your thinking with objects, pictures, words, or numbers.

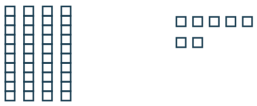

1. Count the tens rods and ones. Write the number.

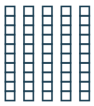

2. Count the tens rods and ones. Write the number.

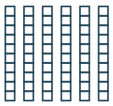

3. Count the tens rods and ones. Write the number.

4. Count the tens rods and ones. Write the number.

5. Count the tens rods and ones. Write the number.

You can point, speak, draw, or write. Adults can note any help they give.